An engineering technologist is a professional trained in certain aspects of development and implementation of a respective area of technology. Engineering technology education is even more "applied" and less theoretical than engineering science education, though in a broad sense both have a focus on practical application. Engineering Technologists often assist professional engineers but after ...

The inherent specificity and electrochemical reversibility of enzymes poise them as the biorecognition element of choice for a wide range of metabolites. To use enzymes efficiently in biosensors, the redox centers of the protein should have good electrical communication with the transducing electrode, which requires either the use of mediators or tedious biofunctionalization approaches.

The Allam cycle is a novel CO₂, oxy-fuel power cycle that utilizes hydrocarbon fuels while inherently capturing approximately 100% of atmospheric emissions, including nearly all CO₂ emissions at a cost of electricity that is highly competitive with the best available energy production systems that do not employ CO₂ capture. The proprietary system achieves these results through a semi-closed ...

Course Descriptions. Applied Regression Analysis for Evaluators. Instructor: Gary T. Henry, PhD Description: Evaluators often face the situation where program outcomes vary across different participants and they want to explain those differences. To understand the contribution of the program to the outcomes, it is often necessary to control for the influence of other factors.

2.5 Name not to be too general. Regulation 181(section 5) provides that a corporate name shall not be too general. The reason for this prohibition is that corporate names that are too general tend to infringe on a number of existing names, are likely to contribute to confusion and unduly restrict or limit the possibility of using names in the future that otherwise would be available to the ...
